

There is nothing quite so beautiful as an original work of art. Each piece of the Collection of Thirty is just that, a work of art, in an 8" x 8" format. These tiles are completely hand-made. Mineral pigments were used to create the glaze colors. This technique is consistent with ceramic pottery production of Renaissance Italy, using an opaque white glaze containing tin oxide. The decorative patterns include several bright colors, as with all Italian majolica. This exclusive collection of classics is comprised of reclaimed tiles found in old homes and villas in Southern Italy. Quantity is limited.
